KCNQ2 FAMILY & RESEARCH SUMMIT

Stand with the families, clinicians, and researchers championing a CURE.

June 23-25, 2027

Mall of America

Bloomington, MN

Where the KCNQ2 community comes together

Hosted every two years by KCNQ2 Cure Alliance, a nonprofit founded by parents of children with KCNQ2-related disorders, the Summit brings together families, clinicians, and researchers for three days of science, support, and community. It is intimate, mission-driven, and focused on impact. Your sponsorship goes beyond branding: it helps fund research, supports families, and accelerates real change.

About KCNQ2

A spectrum of genetic conditions that most often begin with seizures in the first days of life, many with lifelong developmental impact.

1 in 17,000

estimated live births.

The most common single-gene cause of neonatal-onset epilepsy.

Who you will reach

- 200+ attendees in 2025, with families from across the country and around the world
- Neurologists, geneticists, and care teams
- Researchers and clinical trial teams
- Advocates and partners across the rare epilepsy field

Summit highlights

- Research Roundtable: an invitation-only day for clinicians and researchers
- Family Focus: panels, research updates, and practical sessions
- Celebration of Champions: an evening honoring our community
- Sibshop: dedicated programming for brothers and sisters
